Lt. General Geoffrey Keyes, USA
Director, Weapons Systems Evaluation Group
Office of the Secretary of Defense
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Keyes:

In order that the Central Intelligence Agency may effectively carry out its responsibilities for coordination in the field of foreign economic intelligence, as defined by the National Security Council in NSC 15, there has been established an Economic Intelligence Committee for which I have been designated as Chairman. The terms of reference for this Committee were approved by the Intelligence Advisory Committee on 17 May 1951.

Dr. Edward Allen, of your Group, previously served on this Committee as a representative of the Department of the Air Force, and it is suggested that you may wish to name him to represent the Weapons Systems Evaluation Group. Your representative will be an Associate Member, and as such will not be asked to sit at every meeting of the Committee. There will, however, be many occasions when it would be useful to have the Weapons Systems Evaluation Group participate in Committee deliberations.

Should you wish to further clarify the role of your Group in the work of this Committee, I can arrange to meet either with you or some member of your staff at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely yours,

/s/

Max F. Millikan
Chairman, Economic Intelligence Committee
